Definition

Defines a family of algorithms, puts each of them into a separate class, and makes their objects interchangeable.